“ I just learned of Virginia's death on Monday, this week when I read it in the paper. I never met her except via telephone. I am sure she shared the story with you, her children. I contacted her while trying to find a Mr. Lloyd. Only providence could have influenced that contact! We had a few telephone conversations, each which were pleasant to both of us. Even though we never met and never saw each other, we were linked together for some reason. She was a beautiful person in spirit which I could identify by our conversations. My name is Betty Lowder. You were blessed to have a mother who loved you two so well. She always spoke complimentary words of her family. She also bore testimony that she believed there was life after life here on this earth. We both agreed on that point of belief!

“ Ms. Virginia was my Mother-In-Love's precious friend. About once a month they, and a couple of other ladies, "played" together at Hazel's house. She really loved Virginia! I'm sure they will be fast friends again in the Kingdom.
